COMPETITIVE PRODUCT PRICES
PRIORITY MAIL CONTRACT 60 (MC2013-54)
NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

Docket No. CP2013-70

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF
(June 27, 2016)

The United States Postal Service hereby moves for temporary relief to allow the existing contract in this docket to remain in effect for thirty (30) additional days. The customer whose competitive product rates were established in this docket wishes to renew its commitment to sending large volumes of Priority Mail for the next year at negotiated rates. By the terms of the contract filed in this docket, the current rates will expire on July 8, 2016.

The Postal Service and the customer have been working cooperatively on a successor contract over the past several weeks, but have not yet finalized the agreement. The Postal Service expects to reach an agreement and file the successor contract with the Commission within the next two weeks; however, it will not be filed more than 15 days prior to the July 8 expiration date of the existing contract. Therefore, the Postal Service respectfully requests that the Commission grant a thirty (30) day extension to allow the existing contract to remain in effect, or until such time as the successor contract has been approved by the Commission. Thus, the proposed extension would only last for a finite and relatively short period of time. In conclusion, for the reasons discussed above, and in consideration of the customers' business continuity, the Postal Service hereby moves for temporary relief to allow the existing contract to remain on the competitive products list for thirty additional days.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
